THE NEW ENGLAND STATES

As many of our cotemporaries are now seriously engaged in debating a reconstruc-tion of the Union, leaving the New England States out in the cold, we have before us a book, published in Philadelphia in 1814, in in which the author declares that, but for the feat of the very evils which we are now enduring, a separation from New England would be a measure not at all to be deprecated. So arrogant at that day had she become—so insolent and persecuting—that it was foreseen by the wisest that peace in the Union could never be enduring while she was a part of it. The author tays:

"The horrors of an immediate civil war, and of a constant sonder war, such as existed between England and Probland, are the only considerations that render a sepsration from New England a measure to be at all deprecated. Were we insured from these two evils, the expulsion of Massachusetts from the Union would be a measure of justice, propriety and advantage. She has harrassed the rest of the nation to a most intolerable and shameful degree. She seems determined if she cannot rule the country herself, to send it to destruction headlong.— She has been for years a curse and a scourge to the Urion. We should not have had war but for her. And among the features of the present crisis, the most lamentable one is, that she cannot suffer the punishment due to her folly, her arrogance, her restlessness, her faction, her jacobinism, her anti-Washingtonism, without inflicting an equal degree of misfortune on her innocent neighbors. Could she be made to suffer slone, it were a consummation most devoutly to be wished."

The Tribune's Washington correspondent, writing under date of December 25, says: "Some of the African regiments, upon the organization of which the President has determined, will be employed to guard the banks of the Mississippi after it shall have been opened by our fleets and armies.—The immense black population resident on the great river will, when freed and armed, early return of the old times and their be amply sufficient to protect peaceful commerce from molestation. Other African regiments will be employed to garrison the forts below New Orleans and on the coast which are exposed to the diseases of a southern climate. Others still will doubtless be used to enforce the proclamation of freedom for the benefit of their brethren.— It is surmised that General Phelps will have command. It is the realization of Gen. Cameron's plan of a year ago."

We have already had occasion to touch its possession; and this security, this feeling of perfect safety, cannot exist under a construction of the laws. There is no happiness, there is no enjoyment of lie, unless a man can say when his rises in the morn credital of the carnage, and droops in construction. The hard sickens at the templation of the future.

But two years ago our nation was prosper of the followed by the cash of the followed in all our borders. A discharged prisoner from Illinois, who was taken from that State, conveyed to Washington, and there confined in the "Old Capitol," without ever being informed what crime he had committed, writes to the Dubuque Herald, as follows: During my confinement in the "Old Capitol Prison," there were, perhaps, one hundred men carried before the Judge Advocate for trial, and against not one of them was there a single charge sustainednot a single thing proved against them of sufficient importance, in the minds of the Court, to hold them in custody. Yet many of these men have been ironed, transported over a thousand miles from their homes, and kept in close confinement from one to five months. Not only did it appear that these men were never guilty of any disloyalty, but it was clearly proved that many had given all their influence, and rendered active assistance in putting down the rebellion and sustaining the Government on its Constitutional basis.

CARRIER'S ADDRESS

CLOSE OF THE YEAR.

Has gone; and with it, many a glorious throng Of happy dreams—Its mar is on each brow; Its shadow in each heart. In its swift course, It waved its sceptre o'er the heautiful-And they are not. It laid its pallid band Upon the strong man-and the haughty ferm Is fallen, and the flashing eye is dim. It trod the hall of revelry, where thronged The bright and joyons—and the tearful will Of stricken ones is heard where erst the soig And reckless shout resounded. It pass'd e'e The bettle plain, where sword, and spear, and shield,

Flashed in the light of mid-day-and the strength Of service hosts is shivered, and the grass, Green from the soil of carnage, waves above The crushed and mouldering skeleton. It came And lack d like a wreath of mist at eve. Yet, ere it melted in the viewless air, It heralded its millions to their home In the dim land of dreams,"-Printice,

RELIEF OF THE CONTRABANDS.

"Arrangements are about being made whereby the large number of contraband woman and children, as also old men, who have sought refuge in this city within the past few months, will be properly cared for. It is proposed by the military authorities to appeal to the various benevolent associations of the Northern States to procure hon.es and employment for them, the Government bearing the expense of their transportation to the various points to which they may be sent. An officer will probably visit the Northern cities to lay the matter before all benevolent societies, in order to ascertain the number for which each society may be able and willing to secure employment."-National Intelligencer. THE NEW ENGLAND STATE

As many of our cotemporaries as non seriously engaged in debating a reconstruc-tion of the Union, leaving the New England States out in the cold, we have before us a book, published in Philadelphia in 1814, ta in which the author declares that, but for the fear of the very evils which we are now enduring, a separation from New England would be a measure not at all to be depresented. So arrespond at that day had she have cated. So arrogant at that day had she be-come—so insolent and persecuting—that it was foreseen by the wisest that peace in the Union could never be enduring while she was a part of it. The author says:

"The horrors of an immediate civil war,

and of a constant Borner WAR, such as existed between England and Scotland, are the only considerations that render a separation from New England a measure to be at all deprecated. Were we insured from these two evils, the expulsion of Massachuselts from the Union would be a measure of justice, propriety and advantage, She has harrassed the rest of the nation to a most intolerable and shameful degree. She seems determined, if she cannot rule the country herself, to send it to destruction headlong. She has been for years a curse and a securgo to the Urion. We should not have had war but for her. And among the features of the present crisis, the most lamentable one is, that she cannot suffer the punishment due to her folly, her arrogance, her restlessness, her faction, her jacobinism, her anti-Washingtonism, without inflicting an equal de-gree of misfortune on her innocent neighoors. Could she be made to suffer alone, it were 'a consummation most devoutly to be wished."

The Tribune's Washington correspondent, writing under date of December 25, says:

"Some of the African regiments, upon the organization of which the President has determined, will be employed to guard the banks of the Mississippi after it shall have been opened by our fleets and armies,-The immense black population resident on the great river will, when freed and armed, be amply sufficient to protect peaceful com-merce from molestation. Other African regiments will be employed to garrison the forts below New Orleans and on the coast which are exposed to the diseases of a southern climate. Others still will doubtless be used to enforce the proclamation of freedom for the benefit of their brethren.-It is surmised that General Phelps will have command. It is the realization of Gen. Cameron's plan of a year ago,"

We have already had occasion to touch

upon the subject of negro soldiery, and to predict the purposes to which the Abolitionists desire to see this kind of militia put. The paragraph quoted above realizes fully what we had predicted. "The immense black population," says the Tribune, which sits in the councils of the President, " the immense black population resident on the great river are to be freed and armed." --They are "to enforce the proclamation of freedom for the benefit of their brethren, and to protect the commerce of the Missis-sippi." Good Beavens! this cool program-Good Heavens! this cool programme of butchery! Do the people realize for an instant what the paragraph we quote and ruinous schemes, not to forget the holy while the robel army was paralized by Mentary of the divine mission of the founder Clelian. Gen. Pope made the fifth attempt savages, whose darker natures once aroused, whose appetites once whetted with the thirst of blood, would kill and spare notthink of them in arms-the dusky bloodwho shalld be brothers to-day, are pitis, no Yan's persecutor, no man's enemy,

And will any man show us what moral obligation could bind these people once in arms, to restrain them from any violence, to keep them from treachery, even to their professed friends, to hold them in subjection even to the laws? -Patriot & Union.

> POLITICAL BASTILE, A discharged prisoner from Illinois, who was taken from that State, conveyed to Washington, and there confined in the "Old Capitol," without ever being informed what crime he had committed, writes to the Dubuque Herald, as follows:

During my confinement in the "Old Capitol Prison," there were, perhaps, one bundred men carried before the Judge Advocate for trial, and against not one of them was there a single charge sustained.... not a single thing proved against them of sufficient importance, in the minds of the Court, to hold them in custody.

Yet many of these men have been ironed, transported over a thousand miles from their homes, and kept in close confinement from one to five months. Not only did it appear that these men were never guilty of any disloyalty, but it was clearly proved that many had given all their influence. and rendered active assistance in putting down the rebellion and sustaining the Government on its Constitutional basis.

Special Notices. A Card to the Suffering.

The Rev. WILLIAM COSCHOVE, while laboring as a Missionary in Japan, was cared of Consumption, when all other means had failed, by a recipe obtained from a learned physician residing in the great City of Jeddo. This recipe has cared great numbers who were suffering from Consumption, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Coughs and Colds, and the debility and nervous depression caused by these disorders.

Desirons of benefitting others, I will send this receipe, which I have brought home with W. S. Pickisa, Secretary me, to all who need it, free of charge.

It was when I felt that her chances for life were very bad, that Mrs. Edward French, of Moorestown, New Jersey, who had been cured of Consumption and Bleeding from the Lungs, and who knew Dr. Schenck when he had Consumption and came near dying, and knew he below Eighth, south was cured with his celebrated medicines, sent side, Philadelphia, imof the lest rooming.

She was much reduced in flesh and strength, had no appetite, a very FURS, for Ladies' and all that she was far gone with consumption; in the surrounding coun-IT WILL NOT SOFTEN AND RUN IN HOT the afternoons she would have fever and creep- ties that I have now ing chills, and at night free sweats.

After Dr. Schenck and given her an examination with his Re-pirometer, he pointed out to titul assortments of all kinds and qualities of my wife the part of her lungs that was hadly FANCY FURS, for Ladies' and Children's Wear, lisensed. She had little confidence atthistime in any remedies, as she had used nearly every-thing in medicine without the least-benefit, while her disease was progressing to the destruction of the vitals, and would doubtless first of August. soon terminate in death. She commenced using the Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills and lasts, I will offer it at prices pronortionate to Sea-weed Tonic, and continued to use them about a month, seeing Dr. Schenck once week, when she experienced a marked improve ment. There was this difference in the effect of these medicines from all others :- Instea of drying up the secretions and matter, asother medicines had done, they seemed to ripen the matter and expel it in the form of expectoraon, which was very corious, at the sam time the secretions were restored to their na CAR-TOPS, PIAZZAS, tural and healthy condition, and the blood be gan again to circulate naturally. The medicines were continued a long time

At length the matter began to ripen, and the cough became loose, and free discharge of matter occurred right from the snot where my wife felt that her lungs were diseased. Her appetite and digestion improved, and she enjoyed what she had long been a stranger to, sweet, refreshing sleep. The medicines continued to act upon her blood and purified it, and after four or five months she had regained her strength. and felt that her system was purged from all disease. She is now well and hearty and able to attend to the duties of her family, and cannot speak in terms of too great praise of the virtues of your medicines. She is desirons everybody shall know what they have done for her, and will be glad to direct any one to the remedies that will cure that fell destroyer of the human race, Consumption. I reside at 607 Arch street, and Mis. Lanning or myself will our residence, and hear for themselves of the great virtues of your very valuable medic nes.
